So Linda;

If you feel "unwanted" at the Town of Greece meetings, it's probably because you are.

1. If you are an atheist, you should not participate in anything having to do with religion & just mind your own faithless lifestyle.
2. Since it appears that you have little to occupy yourself, find a hobby like knitting or basket weaving which will probably suit you fine.
3. Stay away from town meetings & do everyone a favor.
4. Hateful people like you are not appreciated....anywhere.
5. Hope not to see further articles about your pathetic, miniscule views of society in any paper again.
6. Be careful.....lawsuits can be detrimental
