Good morning, Abasi,

The RGRTA Media Relations policy is as follows:

715 MEDIA RELATIONS

All contacts and inquiries from reporters or other news media representatives must be referred to the Communications & Marketing Department. No RGRTA employee is authorized to speak on behalf of the Authority without prior approval from the Communications & Marketing Department.

Please contact me if you have questions or would like additional information.

Kind regards,
Maryalice

Hello Maryalice. I got your letter. Still need to know the consequences; (threats) for talking to the media. What happens to those who talk to the media while on the Recall List(a.k.a. those employees laid off who are waiting to be hired?) What happens to the employee who is still currently working here who chooses to talk to the media about their own personal experiences? This Relations Policy seems kind of vague. I need more details.
